

From: Jeff Greenfield
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 9:49am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I think that the proposed settlement is a bad idea.

There are many others who can better elaborate than I about the issues involved that affect the WINE application development, SAMBA application development, and other software that works with the API interfaces that Microsoft provides. The settlement does not sufficiently curb Microsoft's negative effects on these applications.

Jeffrey Greenfield, Grand Rapids, MI, Systems Engineer, Calvin College